“ Happy birthday Aunt Bernell. You are a special person in my life. Now on your birthday I can't call you because you're in heaven. Where everyone loves you. Love always Candace Donahue April 9th 2021 and you have to really pay attention on what the phone spells your words right because the one I sent before this one had some words spelled wrong so the phone doesn't listen very well hugs and kisses. So if people read these you have to read it and think of what the word really is because I just noticed they spelled aunt wrong and no doubt other words so now I'll have to really read it before I post it.

“ Hi Aunt Bernell. I remember going to your house during the holidays. To visit with Mom. I love going to your house because it was always a fun time Uncle Frank was there . He always had fun things to do there and you are a good cook you had lots of food. And when I got older and everything I worked at Ralph's and come to your house to have lunch and visit with you and Uncle Frank. Always like seeing you guys you are you're my family when I got older and older it was always a good time to vist you . I call you up and talk to you guys all the time and talk about when I was little these were the good times and now people get older and they pass away that's the sad part. “ Aunt Bernell. She was a wonderful sweet and kind Aunt. She was always happy to see me. When she lived in the valley. I always had lunch at her house on my lunch break. She loved her daughter very much and she missed her husband Uncle Frank. She cared a lot about people. She was very lonely because Uncle Frank was already in heaven for years now and now she's happy she's up there with him in heaven watching down at Christine and her grandchildren making sure that they're safe and everyone else. She loved her family very much. I'll always miss her everyday like today. It's Thanksgiving and she passed away a week ago November 18th 2020. Now I have once again no one to call every month or twice a month. We all have to think about the good times we had with her and Uncle Frank. Love always Candace Donahue ❤️❤️🙏🙏🌹🌹😭❤️😭😭

“ Aunt Bernell. She was such a wonderful person, she was kind and sweet. Happy as ever. She was a special person in my heart and I'll miss her very much. And I loved her very much now she's up in heaven with Uncle Frank. And she doesn't have to suffer anymore. There's lots of people up there that will take care of her and she's looking down at everyone she loved. It's sad that she is gone now. ❤️🙏❤️🥹❤️❤�
