“ It was such a joy and a blessing to be Brooklyn's Esthetics Instructor. She loved the beauty industry so much, and shared her love and her beauty with all of us in class. She was such a light, and she will forever be in our hearts. <3

“ My fondest memory is Brooklyn walking in FoodMaxx so proud of her 'Pisa boots'. Little did she know her Uncle Lupe did not tell her that Pisa is not a nice word for Hispanics. Being he is Hispanic, he took no offense to this and well Brooklyn didn't either. She was proud of those boots and her spunky spirit that day had her walking proud because her Uncle Lupe loved her Pisa boots.

We love you Brooklyn and you are greatly missed. Our hearts will continue to beat knowing that you are now resting in sweet peace dancing & laughing with the angels. I hope your Pisa Boots in heaven never stop dancing for Jesus.

Love you my Brookie, Auntie Cole is thankful that I got to meet a warrior who showed me what courage and strength looks like.

*Love Always,
Uncle Lupe and Auntie Cole*
