

Carson William Ross

June 2, 1926 - April 3, 2019

Carson W. Ross

June 2, 1926 – April 3, 2019

Carson was born in San Diego California on June 2, 1926 to Carson M. and Hannah Ross. He had two younger sisters Caroline Winslow and Barbara Southard, who both died before him. The family moved to Bakersfield when Carson was 6 months old. He lived there until he entered the Navy at 17 to serve in the Pacific during WWII. He returned to Bakersfield where he met his wife Muriel Ross. They had three children Rick Ross, Jerry Ross, and Sandy Seitz. Carson worked in the plant at Wayne's dairy and volunteered as a Kern County Reserve Sheriff. His children have fond memories of the K.C. Fair and Sam Lynn Ball Park on his shifts as a Reserve Sheriff. He lived in Bakersfield until 1973 when he moved to Modesto for work as a truck driver. He and his wife Ginger lived there until 2016 when he moved back to Bakersfield after her death. He lived in Bakersfield for the rest of his life passing away on April 3, 2019.
