“ The sudden loss of my brother, Daniel, has been heartbreaking. It was my profound privilege to get to know him over the past several years, and I am so grateful for the time we had together. His passing is a solemn reminder that we never know how long we have with the people we love.

Daniel was a truly kind and generous man who was always there to help. I will miss his quiet strength, his valuable advice, and his unwavering support. A loving husband, devoted father, wonderful brother, and dear uncle, he will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him.

We don't say goodbye, but rather, in the Cherokee language, donadagohvi (VƏLƏŋT): let us, you and I, see each other again.

“ I remember meeting these three little kids! One of them being Dan. He was the cutest little thing. Barely 6 years old, curly blonde hair blue eyes. Full of wonder. I watch that little boy grow into a man. I loved him so much. He was an inspiration to many of us. Loved his family. Loved life! A large presence, that no one else is going to be able to fill. I miss you my brother. Love you with all my heart and soul. 😭

“ There is not enough words to express how wonderful of a person Dan was on this earth! Dans love for his fellow man be it family or friends was unmeasurable! Dans big smile will never be forgotten Dans kindness and generosity was giving freely with Joy in his heart.

Dans drive and enthusiasm for life was an inspiration to me always.

Dan's dedication to his family his love for his wife and his daughter more than obvious as he made it very clear how much he loved them in his words of praised for them both!

Dan being the oldest of us siblings was the Leader, the rock, and anchor! No matter where Dan was on this planet one phone call and he would be there for you..

There was not one important invent in my life that Dan did not come to help to encourage to aid. I will always love my brother Dan beyond anything that can be measured.

Heaven is lucky they have such a wonderful person in their presence as we were lucky to have Daniel in ours !

Till we meet again forever loved forever in our hearts.

Love you Dan ❤️

Love always your sister Denise
