“ Danny I am going to miss our two/three hour telephone conversations where we discussed our families, friends, church, life in general, reminisced about our childhood days, class reunions. Last we spoke in November you were so happy and thankful for all the blessings our Lord Jesus Christ has given you.
When the Lord calls our loved ones home, he leaves a gift of memories in exchange. We will treasure those memories, because memories are the legacy of love. Your cousin Dino & Ramon “ Danny, we grew up like family and I will miss my dear friend. Wish we could've met one more time but grateful that we connected the last few years!

To his family, you had an awesome dad, he was always kind and caring when he was young! My deepest condolences, I will miss him, but I know he's with his loved ones💕
Till we meet again my dear friend!

With much love, Vivian and Daniel Lopez
