“ If there was a place away from the strain if there was answers the left a heart the same before the darkness before the miles I wish to join you there and see your hero smile you never caused me doubt and you never disbelieved you were always on my side and made that be seen , Darren I would give anything to talk to you today to tell you how much You meant in every single way there
Us no words to describe what an amazing man you were or how much I loved you , you were my hero and a hero you were there will never be another you
I miss you Darren 😭

“ Hey Darren Happy Valentine's day , I know right ! I can hear you now ... F Valentine's day haha ... Maybe a few other choice words .
Darren I wanted to say today I miss you and I'm so sorry that things turned out how they did , situations can make or break a person and people family can do the same , especially relationships , unfortunately it can cause more strain than imaginable , well enough of that I was just thinking of you today as I do everyday and wanted to tell ya I love you and I miss you and I would give anything in the world to see you today ,, Rest In Peace my Dear Darren

“ Happy Birthday Day Darren , Its taken some time to write anything , memories or thoughts or just a sad goodbye , see when you are and you were a hero in someone's eyes you never think that you will ever say goodbye . Darren you were always a Hero to me , invincible. I can't describe in mere words how important and how special you were to me and my family my dad loved you and if he were still alive would be heartbroken Jason was in Tennessee boarding a train when I sent the message and he had to get off the train and sat and cry he said he would drink to you today you drink as Justin and I sat at an old river bed and done the same , Darren you were an irreplaceable human being there are very few like you! There will never be another you . I loved you then Darren no I was in love with you and to this day I love you the same. We spent several years together and you taught me what being in love with someone really in love with them felt like so many special times and you always made me feel on top of the world . You are a great man Darren everything anyone would ever want in someone to love them , you lived me and you never let that be a question , I still have work here to do Darren but someday my work will be over and that day I will join the most amazing fun and sweet and beautiful man once again and that day will be not an ending to me but a begining because I will see you again and that alone is something to cherish and look forward you will never be a memory to me Darren because I will keep you close with me everyday in my heart in my thoughts and never say Goodbye untill we meet again my friend my hero my everything I love you Darren and I always will.

“ Darren was my very first true love. We were very young but thought we ruled out tiny world together. He was indeed the sweetest most complicated guy I ever had the privilege to love! Rest in peace Darren! You will forever remain in my heart! Untill we meet again my love!! 🙏

Darren was the kind of person that would do more than just give you the shirt off his back. If you were his friend or someone he just met he would open up his spot an help you in any way he could . He was a different kind of individual for sure. The world could use alot more people that had the compassion he had towards people that had been cast off from society. He did the best he could an there are lots of people that would turn away from people like him an the people he let come around him that have something that he gave them that he gave them that is probably the most valuable thing they own an he gifted it to them for free from the heart because they liked it an knew how expensive it was . He was my brother an i have been given things from him as well. Things worth money or really valuable just because I liked them as well . I didnt spend as much time in life as I should of because of the people he had around but I loved him an he knew that . I miss you Darren . I wish I could of been there an seen you at the end . Even your last words to David were trying to help someone else . Rest in peace til I see you again ...your bro Steve
