

Elizabeth Sue Arvizu

September 8, 1944 - October 28, 2022

Elizabeth Sue Arvizu was born on September 8, 1944 in Madera, California to George and Pearl McDaniel. She went to her heavenly home on Friday, October 28, 2022.

Her family moved from Madera to Bakerfield in 1961 and that is where she met the love of her life Ronald D Arvizu at the Bakersfield 1st Pentecostal Holiness Church. They were married on May 5, 1962.

Elizabeth is preceded in death by her parents, George and Pearl McDaniel; sisters Betty Queen and Wilma Chase; brothers Bobby, Buddy and Gerald McDaniel and Granddaughter Melissa Arvizu.

Elizabeth is survived by her husband of 60 years, Ronald Dean Arvizu, Daughter Stephanie (Richard) Musquez, Son Ronald Keith (Linda) Arvizu, Grandchildren Katie, Daniel (Ellie), Kristina Musquez, Tyler (Bianca) Arvizu, Ryan and Robert Wood. Great grandchildren James, Emily and Sophie Arvizu and soon to be Poppy Musquez. Sisters Louise Aamold, Lillian Owens and Velma Boman. She is also survived by numerous brothers and sister in laws as well as nephews and nieces which she loved very dearly.

The family would like to thank the nursing staff in ICU, 4 West and all of the doctors that cared for Elizabeth the last 2 ½ weeks. A very special thank you to Dr. Patel of Comprehensive Medical in Delano, Dr. Sandhu and Dr. Singh of CCMC and Dr. Khanna for the wonderful care you have given to our wife and mom.

“ So sorry to hear about your families loss, but Heaven's gain. She truly was a special lady who will be deeply missed. I know there was a special welcoming committee waiting on those streets to greet her and lead her around. I send a heartfelt hug to each and every one of you of her family during these days of mourning. You can truly see the strong resemblance in both of her children, whom I am sure dearly loved her and will greatly miss her.
