“ Frankie, my little Frankie four fingas ;) inside joke. Not just Gorrill Street but every street, every block, ... Everywhere. You are missed. It's not the same without you. I'm not the same. I have thought and cried for you every day since you left. Frankie, I love you, and I know you would never leave me like this on purpose. I really tried to protect you. You were more than my little cousin, you were a brother, a son, my protector, my shadow and best friend. You really were everything so purely and loving and I miss you more than. Youd ever know. Maybe someday we can see eachother soon and "wanma build a snowman?" Love your favorite Amanda
