“ I remember I came by walking late night/early morning, you know one of those nights. I knocked on the door because I knew I could always go there if I was in need. She saw me and asked what happened. I gave her a quick run down. Oscar got up to meet me and they let me sleep there and I remember her always treating me like one of the kids. She told Oscar to get me a blanket and pillow. When I got up she actually made me and Mikey something to eat. She was an amazing lady and one of the sweetest. I will always remember how welcoming and sweet she was.
