“ Someone please contact me with any info because not even Barry's office will speak to me. I want my mothers ashes and some of her belongings before they are sold. I am so lost and have been contacted by no one about my rights other than a brief call by The trusts executor Phil McLaughlin and then an informal text that he resigned. So know one is talking to me and and retainer an attorney is not feasible.

Please reach out if you can.... I need help and direction. I much appreciate those of you who had spoken up so far ♡

“ I also have a few memories of Hal forcing my Mother to eat when she was feeling everything awful and too nauseous to eat... bless her heart because she tried so hard to keep peace but she would throw it up and then her sweet husband would force it back down her throat and over again. She also started throwing food under the table at restaurants so Hal thought she ate and would not punish her.

That is because he never loved her. Only possessed and controlled her like a toy you put batteries in. The same way he treated us 💔

I remember a time when I told a joke to Hal, Daymon Cline, & others - The joke was as follows: Joe Campen is a very good fist fighter, but Joe cannot beat Hal in a fist fight - Hal is a better fist fighter than Joe Campen.

So horrible what his children had to endure & suffer! His daughter Carie was raped by he as well his father! Yes, her own father & grandfather. He came into the office and told the story about how he had to teach the dog a lesson. It made my heart burn for his family! He also told of a sheep or lamb and how he had to kill it because it fell into a ravine and broke its legs. He said he took the tractor and buried it but I knew he had done something very unnatural with it. I was his secretary for many years and have never known such evil. Poor Claudette, one can only imagine what she went through. The money was all hers too! He was crooked as they come. She left everything to her daughter Carie & son Daymon and Hal made me type up a new will (it was originally Claudette's trust for her kids & Hal said that this is what she wanted now. I did not believe for a minute she wanted this and the new will was generic and gave him everything. The children were not even mentioned. Dear Lord please let Carie & Daymon heal and know happiness in their lives. Breaks my heart! I think flowers should go to the kids. Does anyone know if they are at the Island's Drive address?

Mr Seimens, could you please reach out to my brother and I? Hals Attorney Barry Goldman is treating us like we are criminals. The trustee of my Mothers first trust and the second one in question has up and resigned and a state representative has been assigned. But as my Father left it in paid hands we are being treated kinda like Hal treated us, with very much disrespect and disregard. Neither have me brother and I even gotten notification of my parents passing and there is absolutely NO one taking my calls with out a huge retainer. Please help if you are able.

*Sincerely
