Harry Bennett Reynolds

October 22, 1932 – July 17, 2016 Harry passed away quietly in his sleep and will be missed greatly by his loved ones. Harry was born in Pumpkin Center-Sapulpa, Oklahoma and went to local schools there until moving to Anaheim, California with his family where he graduated from Anaheim High School. He served in the Army 40th division in the Korean War. Harry worked in the Oil Industry his whole career and finished his career with Driltek. He was an avid fisherman and loved to spend time fishing with his family. He leaves behind his children, daughter and son-in-law Darla and Tom Oglesby, son and daughter-in-law Steve and Taj, Mike Breshears and Greg Breshears, sister Rosetta Sanders, Aunt Barbara Sue and Tom Lawrence, and grand children Jennifer Oglesby, Melissa Branson, John Oglesby, Jade, Reese and Tristin, Stevie Reynolds, Mycah, Megan and Mallory, and nieces and nephews. He is joined in heaven by his late wife Betty, parents Loretta and Hap Smith and Pat Reynolds and sister Patsie Lewellan. Viewing will be Wednesday, 7/20/16 from 4-7 PM at Mission Family Mortuary, 531 California Ave. Services will be held Thursday, 7/21/16 at 9:15 AM at the Bakersfield National Cemetery.
