

Hector Hernandez

December 25, 1953 - March 14, 2024

Hector Hernandez was born on December 25, 1953, in the community of Ysleta in El Paso, Texas. He passed away on March 14, 2024, in Bakersfield, California. He lived in Bakersfield most of his life and attended East High School.

In his early years, Hector worked in different trades, such as concrete and construction work. In his final years, he worked side by side with his eldest son, Hector Hernandez Jr., helping him run the family maintenance business. One of his favorite things to do while at work was cutting down trees and running the tractor.

He always enjoyed helping others and spending quality time with family and friends. Drawing photos for others was one of his unique talents he enjoyed doing. He loved the outdoors and visiting places of nature. When he saw scenic views, he called it God's artwork. He enjoyed playing his guitar for family and friends in his leisure time. He was a man of faith who loved reading his bible and spending time with the Lord.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Ismael Hernandez and Teodora Velasco Hernandez, and his brothers Raymond Hernandez, Raul Hernandez, Ismael Hernandez, Richard Hernandez, Lupe Hernandez, Memo Hernandez, and his sister Rosa Hernandez. Surviving him are his wife, Rosemary Hernandez, and children Dominica and husband, John Montez; Hector Hernandez Jr. and wife Deserie, Lawrence, Isaac, and Robert; Aaron and stepchildren; Kimberly and husband Louie Mancha and Ismael; Andrew and wife Katelynn Cavazos and numerous grandchildren.

Hector was a man of unique character and sense of humor. He will be forever in our hearts and deeply missed.
