Tribute Wall

“ Joe and I played football and baseball together during our high school days in Dickinson ND. Joe was one of the few guys that had a car and we used to drive around at night trying to evade the police as our town had a 9:30 pm curfew and they knew Joe's car. I took a trip with Joe's brother, Herb, one summer and we spent the first night at Joe's home in Billings. Joe was well liked by his many friends. Deepest sympathy to Claudia and his family on his passing.
