

Kenny Brian Robbins

June 8, 1971 - January 22, 2019

Kenny Brian Robbins, 47, was born in Taft on June 8, 1971 to Billie Fay and Kenny Dale Robbins. He unexpectedly passed away January 22, 2019.

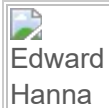

He is preceded in death by his father, Kenny Dale, and his brother, William Scott Robbins.

He is survived by the love of his life, Heidi Robbins; his children: Nathan & wife Amanda, Dustin & wife Lexi, Scotty, Christopher, Haylee, and Kennydee; his grandbaby Bella; his brother Greg Robbins & wife Polly; his mother Billie Fay & husband Willie; his parents in law; Marvin and wife Bonnie Gibson, Patricia Brewer; many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends

Brian was the life of the party no matter where he went. Always with his goofy smile and what was known as “the Brian shuffle”. With his boisterous voice and key phrases such as “Game on” and “Yah Mule” you always knew when Brian was near. Brian worked hard and dedicated his life to his family.

Brian will be missed by many and then some as he made an impact on all those who knew him.

Tribute Wall

Edward
Hanna

“ Sorry about the typo error I was going off of The Voice anyway my name is Deborah Tannen my number is 909-751-6823 can you is awesome you can call me I'd appreciate it thank you

Edward Hanna - September 05, 2021 at 07:06 PM

KE

Hi, I'm writing a book about my dad and who he was as a man. I would appreciate a moment of your time to hear stories from his past and how you knew him.

kennydee - February 28, 2024 at 03:55 AM

Edward
Hanna

“ I meant Kenny at CRC California State Prison I never would have made it through there we got him the man had a kind heart and a friend for lunch he was known as Kern County he was my partner and my buddy damn I thought I would see him again God bless may you rest in peace Kenny I

Edward Hanna - September 05, 2021 at 07:04 PM

WR

Thank you for your condolences.

William Robbins - October 08, 2022 at 07:03 PM