“ One of my fondest memories of Aunt Lynn was when I would see her I would say “Hello Lillian” and she would reply “Hello Deborah”. The funnny part was Lillian was her real name (which she didn’t like) and Deborah was not my real name. We both would laugh. Aunt Lynn’s laugh was infectious but more infectious than that was her loving and forgiving heart. The greates part if all of this is once I see her again in heaven we will never be separated again.

“ May your family find peace and comfort during this time. Rest in peace dear sweet Lynn. We all will miss you. Thank you for being such a wonderful friend. Remembering the sound of your laugh will always make me smile.

“ Aunt Lynn was a beautiful person inside and out. Kind words for everyone always. I remember one time you got angry in line at farmer brothers asking the people that kept crowding what does it look like I'm just standing here. You crossed your arms and huffed a little . The thing is the people never heard you only I did. You never raised your voice loud enough for them to hear you. Laughing later about it was great. And every time I reminded you of that day we'd laugh all over again. Your smile and laughter were contagious. We will never forget you. Love and miss you. One other thing towards the end of your life when I came to visit you I would say your favorite niece is here to see you and a great big smile would come up on your face. Love from your favorite niece.

One of the fondest memories I have with Aunt Lynn was I would always say "Hello Lillian" and she would respond "Hello Deborah". The funny part was I was using her real name that she didn't care for but my name is Debbie not Deborah. She had the sweetest disposition and always a smile. Always forgiving even when she was being done wrong she wouldn't let it affect her. Always sweet, kind and giving. Look forward to seeing her again in heaven.

"Saying goodbye to someone you love is never easy and it's especially hard to say goodbye to you Auntie Lynn. So many of my memories of growing up include you. You were not only my Auntie but my other Mom. The one who would put my hair into a ponytail and tie it with one of your scarves making me feel like a princess. Always remembering my birthday with a beautiful card. Taking me fishing and letting me ride in the back of the pickup with Cindy and Bob. All the out-of-town trips our families took together sometimes crammed into the same car. Until we are together again rest easy Auntie Lynn, you may be gone from this life but you will never be gone from my heart. Loving you always.

“ Lynn was my Great Aunt, and I don't use the word “great” as a technicality. She was always laughing and smiling and lots of my earliest childhood memories were spent at her house every Friday night for card games or Zilch. Even as I grew and moved away, every time I came back to visit she was always there to ask how I had been and tell me she loved and missed me. It is now our turn, Great Aunt Lynn, you are loved and will be missed.
