

Lydia Virginia Alaniz

December 30, 1941 - July 9, 2022

Lydia Virginia Alaniz
(Ginny)

Ginny was born in San Pedro, CA to Lydia and Bernardo Flores. She graduated from San Pedro High School in 1960 and remained in San Pedro until she married her husband in 1968.

During her lifetime, she had various employers. She worked at the Long Beach Naval Shipyard (where she met her husband), Bank of America, Elk Hills oil fields (office), and Fastrup on Ming Ave. (bookkeeper). She worked as an Account Clerk in General Services for Kern County for 22 years before retiring.

Ginny is survived by her husband of 53 years Roel L. Alaniz and her 3 children Susie Miranda, Ida Cano and Roel M. Alaniz. She has 12 grandchildren: Djonne Stevens, Burt Miranda, Carmen Borrero, Brian Cano, Eric Cano, Alex Cano, Kellie Cano, Alexandria Aultman, Danielle Lopez, Mireya Rizo, Mercedes Alaniz and Aren Alaniz. She also leaves behind her 2 sisters Armida Flores Alaniz, Pauline Vega-Flores and 2 brothers Bernie Flores, Victor Flores plus many many nieces, nephews, in-laws, cousins and great-grandchildren.

Ginny was a very religious Catholic woman. She was a very loving, caring, and giving person. EVERYONE was on Ginny's Christmas list! Alzheimer's robbed us of having more years with our mother. We will always miss our mom and know she will be missed by so many. Special thanks to Hoffmann Hospice for their services.
