

Lydia Trobaugh

July 15, 1969 - October 7, 2021

Lydia Trobaugh, 52, passed away on Thursday, October 7, 2021. Her loving family held her hand, while her spirit ascended.

She was born to the late Raul and Sarah Hernandez in Bakersfield, California. Lydia was the sixth born of seven children. She graduated from South High School. Lydia went on to cultivate a prosperous life that was in an abundance of love when she met her husband, Jack Trobaugh. Her biggest joy in life was being surrounded by family and many friends, living at the beach for weeks on end, and dancing with her one true love.

Lydia would say one of her greatest accomplishments were her children: Jack II, Taylor, Sarrah, and Caleb, as she had dedicated her life for them in every way. She was never one to exclude others from her love, either. Many people would describe her as someone whose heart could envelope them in a fiery hug. There was nothing she would not do for those she saw as family, which are too many to count. She did not live a life without love, that's for sure.

She is preceded in eternal life by her parents and brother Raul Jr. Hernandez. She is survived by her children: Jack II (26), Taylor (22), Sarrah (19), Caleb (17), her husband, Jack Derrell Trobaugh, her sisters: Lisa Rodriguez (Mark Rodriguez), Vivian Hernandez and brothers: Richard Hernandez (Fidelia Hernandez), Ernest Hernandez, Jaime Hernandez (Cathy Hernandez). As well as, her nieces, nephews, godchildren, and her “lovey baby” Noah.

“ Lydia was always on the go, she especially loved her weekend trips out of town. I always worried about that, I would tell her (as a big sister does!) to always let me know when she got on the road, and she did. She would check in when she got to where she was going. I would tell her to be safe, have fun, but behave! 😊 Always, always said we loved each other and to call when she got home, to which she would, sometimes a little later than she should have but she always let me know when she was safe at home. 💕 words cannot express the loss I am feeling, I am so broken 💔 but knowing she is resting in our Lord's loving arms, gives me a sense of peace 🕊
