MARCIA SUSAN BOMERS YULE

July 26, 1941-February 29, 2016

Marcia was born July 26, 1941 in Illinois and passed away February 29, 2016 after a courageous fight with colon cancer. Daughter of a minister, Marcia frequently moved with her family to new churches. From Minnesota, to S. Dakota, to New Mexico and to finally Arvin, Ca. Marcia graduated from Arvin High in 1959 and started Bakersfield College the following fall. It was at B.C. where she met her future husband, Herald (Hal) Yule. Hal and Marcia were married August 21, 1965. They would have been married 40 years when Hal tragically died in a car accident June 2005. It was also in 1965, that Marcia received her B.A in Elementary Education from Fresno State University and began teaching 3 / 4 grade at Myrtle Ave school in Lamont. She taught up until the birth of her and Hal's daughter Holly in September 1978. When Holly got older, Marcia went back to teaching as a substitute teacher and continued until 2011 when her grandson Andrew was born and she officially retired.

Marcia was very active in the Kern County Scottish Society for the past 38 years and was a faithful member of First Congregational Church, Bakersfield.

A very special thank you to KCSS Chaplain Nancy McMaster and Jan Lockhart for all of their help the past several months and to Balance

Residential Care for taking excellent care of Marcia in her final days. Marcia is survived by her daughter Holly Davisson (Leif), grandson Andrew Davisson, sister-in-law Gwen Yule and numerous nieces and nephews.

Services for Marcia will be March 10, 2016 at 10:30am at Mission Family Mortuary, 531 California Ave (corner of California and S St). Reception will follow at First Congregational Church, Bakersfield, 5 Real Rd (corner of Real Rd and Stockdale Hwy)
