

Margaret Terrez Rector

May 23, 1926 - June 25, 2020

Margaret Terrez Rector, born May 23, 1926 and met her Savior face to face on June 25, 2020; She was the daughter of the late Emory and Pauline Thompson. Margaret was born and raised in Bakersfield California. She met and married Evonol Rector on August 7, 1948. They raised 3 beautiful daughters, Sharon, Paula and Vickie.

Margaret was a member of First Assembly of God for many years. Her life was dedicated to ministry and to telling everyone she met about Jesus. One of her greatest joys was her Downtown ministry where she ministered to everyone she came in contact with. Margaret took the bus downtown every day. She loved on each and every person on the bus, including the drivers. She was a regular fixture at Vest Drugs where she greeted every person sharing the Gospel with them. Her ministry also extended to Rest Homes, Hospitals and Prisons.

Margaret is best known for “The King is Coming” button that she wore every day. She made it her mission to hug everyone, and tell them Jesus Loves you! Whether you were a doctor, nurse, waitress or delivery person, she made sure you knew you were loved by her and Jesus.

She was preceded in death by her husband Evonol and daughter Paula Johnson, her parents and siblings Nellie, Georgia, Betty and Ben.

She is survived by her Daughter, Sharon Holt (Ray), Daughter, Vickie Hagood (Forest), Grandchildren, Jennifer (Daniel), Jill, Steven (Kristen), Scott, Candice (Doug), Carrie and Christopher, Great grandchildren, Jessica, Samantha (Simon), Alex, Gracie, Zoey, DJ and Maddie, and great great grandchildren, Judah and Jordan; Survived by her sister Mary Shadduck (husband Earl) and numerous nieces and nephews.

“ I first met Margaret when I became her pastor back in 1997; we met at a church ball game and from the first ever meeting, I called her MOM and have ever since, especially after becoming her son in law in 2001. I loved her dearly and always told her “ you’re the only Mom I have left.” Seen you real soon, Mom! Forest
