“ Where to start: NAS Cubi Point (Olongapo City) Philippines in the early 80's, I was a young Naval Air Crewman trying to find my way back to the Sky Club and BEQ 31 when I encounter a new VP-4 Flight Engineer at the Main Gate fresh off the Victory Liner from Manilla. Yes, I used Mark's official arrival to summon the Duty Driver to come collect him and his bags (and one additional passenger). Amusingly, Mark was assigned to "our" Crew and that was the beginning of a long friendship and my acceptance into his Family. I was a welcome (and regular) guest in their home both at NAS Barbers Point Housing and again at Point Mugu, where Mark was in another flying tour and I was Recruiting in nearby Oxnard. I can't remember how many dinners and weekends I shared with Mark, Joyce and the kids AND how many times I stomped around their home like Godzilla with Aaron on one leg and Melanie on the other. What wonderful memories, and the way I choose to remember my dear Friend and Brother, Mark "The Troll" DeLuca, when he, Joyce, Scott, Aaron and Melanie where all together and filled with life and joy. God Bless you, Mark, as you are reunited with your beautiful Bride and First Born in the presence of our Lord and Savior.

All Our Love to Aaron, Melanie and the entire Family, Steve/Uncle "Vac" and Sheryl Varga
