Celebrating the Life of Patrick Fontes Carrasco

Patrick Fontes Carrasco, born in Bakersfield and raised in Shafter, California, passed away at 59, leaving behind a rich legacy of love, faith, and family. Patrick was a dedicated father. He is survived by his children Jacob, Patrick, and Sabrina, and his mother Mart Lou, brother Randy and sisters Danielle, Monica and Teresa. He is preceded in death by his wife Yolanda and his brothers Mark and Matthew and grandson Betach. A proud grandfather to his cherished grandchildren: Damien, Emily, Elijah, Jonathan, Esperanza, Cairo, Ethan, Melek, Patrick III, Randy, Malka, Tzadik, Fievel, Tikvah, Tzeitel, and Chava.

Patrick's love for life extended to his favorite pastimes, including his passion for fishing. He found peace and joy in the stillness of the water, casting his line and appreciating the simple beauty of nature. His devotion to God was the foundation of his life, guiding him with strength and faith through every step of his journey.

An ardent Los Angeles Dodgers fan, Patrick celebrated each victory as if it were his own, but it was his family that held his deepest devotion. He was a loving father and grandfather, always present to share in the laughter, joys, and even challenges of life. His faith, love for fishing, and his bond with his family created a life filled with meaning and fulfillment.

As we honor Patrick's life, we celebrate the man who was unwavering in his faith, filled with love for his family, and happiest when surrounded by those he loved or out on the water with a fishing rod in hand or enjoying a dodger dog singing "Take me out to the ball game" at Dodger stadium. His memory will live on in the hearts of his family, children, grandchildren, and all who knew him, a testament to the love, laughter, and faith he shared with the world.
