

Richard "Dick" Lewis Minetti

February 4, 1936 - January 26, 2018

Owner of Minetti Farms in Bakersfield. Loved Motor bikes, Freedom and oranges.

Tribute Wall

CL

“ The incomparable rough and rugged giant of a man. Friendly, crass, generous, sometimes mean Minnetti. God done broke the mold after Dick..or maybe Dick himself broke the mold. Classy, sassy, free spirited bad ass. Never forget when in 2017, at the age of 80 he took me into the foothills across the orchard in his nice white truck..his daughters, floored it like a madman. I thought we were gonna die. Then we drove to Cindy's restaurant, parked in Cindy's personal spot, entered through the employees only back door and started shouting orders to all the workers who knew him well. We proceeded to a table where he ordered every single item on the menu and had the waitress serve them to me. He exclaimed," Thought you looked hungry" and laughed ferociously...Bye Bye Big Dick!

CL - July 17, 2021 at 06:01 AM