“ I miss you beyond measure. I love you my baby. I’m hoping Momzie is taking care of you or you’re taking care of her. I’ll see you when I get there. Cami is there with you now as well. I’m heartbroken for the loss of all of you.

Last time I saw P I had gone out to Bakersfield to stay with him and his family. It was like a breath a fresh air to spend time with him and his family and take a break from myself. All he kept saying to me was to stay with him and his family and start fresh in a new place with good people around me. I wish I'd of listened to him. I always felt at home with PJ. He was my genuine friend. He had much love for me and I had much love for him. No judging between the two of us. I love that about him! HE was cool, calm, and collective. I loved that about him! There was nothing in him that was in any way negative towards me. And that's what made me gravitate to him no matter where he was. I love you P!!!! Whether you're here or there or where ever you may be I'm with you bro. I might not have moved on to the next yet but I'm comin and I'll see you soon. Arthur Green, your friend.
