

Thomas John Boles

July 4, 1955 - October 19, 2023

Thomas John Boles was born on July 4, 1955, in Santa Cruz, CA, to Elaine and John Boles. He began his life's journey by moving to Bakersfield at fourteen, where he worked side by side with his father, immersing himself in the plumbing trade. In 1985, he proudly established Tom Boles Quality Plumbing, excelling in commercial building. In 1975 Tom married Bonnie Simpson and their children Nicole, Amber and Thomas, Jr. survive them. In 1990, Tom married and leaves behind his second wife, Patricia .

Tom's favorite past time was dirt bike riding and in later years that was replaced with the time he spent with his grandchildren, Courtlynn, Addison Antoninio, Jack Antonio, Phebe, T.J., Luke.

Our hearts ache with his sudden departure, finding comfort in the belief that he now rests in God's hands. Timothy 1:15. A Celebration of Life is planned at Mission Mortuary on November 17th at 10:30 am, followed the next day, by a serene sunset resting place in the waters off Santa Cruz with his beloved dog, ALF.
