“ I lived in Wasco while my children were growing up and, of course, knew Vada. She was fun and happy and a wonderful person to be around so I think most of Wasco back then knew Vada!
When our son, Carl, was born of course there was an announcement in the Wasco News of his birth. My last name is Miller but in the announcement, Carl Miller was announced as Carl Millar. Vada, being the fun person she was, claimed Carl as hers! We laughed about that over the years.
I loved running into her at the grocery store. We just talked and talked and laughed and laughed ... all the while her daughter was waiting patiently nearby or in the car. Vada was one of a kind and I will always have fond and happy memories of her. Love you, friend, see ya later

“ I had the opportunity to work with Vada at CASA of Kern County. As a CASA Volunteer, Vada worked collaboratively to support children and families involved in foster care. Vada advocated for 15 children and during that time she got to know each child individually. Due to her consistent connection with the children, communication with other professionals, people who were involved in the children's lives, and submitting detailed reports to the judge, Vada made a lasting difference in the lives of these children. CASA of Kern County was very fortunate to have had Vada as a volunteer, and I was fortunate to have gotten to work with and know Vada.
