

Verna Slape

December 14, 1930 - June 2, 2017

Verna was born to Tom and Agnes Sullenger, on December 14, 1930. She had a twin and seven other brothers and sisters.

They made their way to California like so many others did. After settling in Salinas, she met a young man named Floyd Slape. A few years into their marriage, they had a son Rickey, and a few years later, another son Ronald, who at the age of two passed away, which hurt her deeply throughout her life. Life in Salinas was full with family and friends with bowling, boating, Jeeping, motorcycling and being a mother. Their son Rickey moved to Bakersfield in the winter of '77, but soon after Floyd retired, they moved to Bakersfield and bought a house next door to their son and his wife Peggy. They had two sons, Jason and Ronnie, with their wives Amber and Jennifer, and their combined 7 great-grand children.

Even though she lost Floyd 5 years ago, she was able to enjoy many years with her family, and many friends she touched along her way in life. She never met a stranger. She will be missed as much as she was loved.
