Victor “Joe” Daugherty

December 12, 1974 to August 29, 2020

Victor “Joe” Daugherty went to be with his Lord and Savior in his sleep on August 29, 2020 at the age of 45.

Joe was born December 13, 1974 in Oroville, CA to Victor S. Daugherty and Debra J. (Johle) Myers. Growing up, his brothers Chris and Tim were always by his side. Joe was the oldest and was always there to protect and guide them the best he could. Some of his fondest memories were of him and his brothers and the mischief they got into.

He was the kindest most generous person you could ever meet. He loved the opportunity to volunteer his time and help others any chance he got. He felt his true calling in life, that God placed on his heart, was to advocate and nurture children in need. A few that were close to his heart was the Cripple Children’s Society, Royal Family Kids Camp and being a CASA Advocate for foster children.

Joe called the oilfields “Home” for the last 18 years. He found a career and passion in Safety & Training which led him to meeting numerous colleagues who became close friends.

Joe’s greatest achievement in life was becoming the family man he always thrived to be. He loved his wife, children, and grandson more than life itself and was grateful for the enormous family God blessed him with over the

Joe loved to bring the family together for games, football, swimming and cornhole in the front yard. You could even find him out front with his giant screen watching a movie and roasting marshmallows even in the middle of summer. His favorite moments in life was to hear his family talking, laughing, and enjoying life together. Joe lived life to the fullest and left behind many great lessons and traditions for us to continue in his memory.

Joe is survived by his wife of 19 years, Bridget Daugherty. Daughter and Son-in-Law, Ashley and Joshua Parker; Son's Austan Bucknell and Gavin Daugherty; Brothers Rick (Leanne) Baskin, Chris (Tara) Daugherty, Tim (Jody) Daugherty; Sisters Christina Arnold, Theresa Leon, Wendy Miranda; Mother-in-law and Father-in-Law Jess (Susan) Winters; Brother-in-law and Sister-in-law Nicholas (April) Winters; Numerous Aunts, Uncles, Cousins Nieces and Nephews
