

W.E. Pete Kimble

November 19, 1938 - February 27, 2016

Pete was born in Bakersfield, CA on November 19, 1938 to Willard Everett Kimble, Sr. and Gertrude Isabelle Hayes. On February 27, 2016, Pete passed at home with his wife, Carla by his side and with a final smile on his face. He was enlisted in the United States Air Force and was a Veteran of the Post Korean War. Pete played professional baseball for the Cleveland Indians, loved to fly when he was a pilot, Pete enjoyed travel, golf and bowling as well as ballroom dancing. Pete was connected to early Bakersfield history, the Howell House at Pioneer Village was once his grandmother's home. He enjoyed people and was the Governor of The Stockdale Moose Lodge, where in 1990 he met Carla, the Sunshine of his life. They had been inseparable since.

Pete is survived by his loving wife, Carla Kimble, sons Larry, John Scott and Jeffery (Kellie); daughters Candice Suazo and Tammie Kimble; Step-children Annette Cotterell (Mike), Dan Daniel (CherAmi) and Chris Daniel, half sister Ruth Haupt, as well as numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He is predeceased by his parents, Willard and Gertrude Kimble and step-daughter Karen Phillips (Richard).
